Anglican Church Women of Foxtrap Parish

Did you know that the first Anglican Women's Group in the Parish of Foxtrap dates back to the early 1900's ? It was formed by Mrs. Edith Caldwell, wife of the Rev E.K.H. Caldwell and although it was commonly known as the 'Sewing Circle', it was to be named 'The Church of England's Women's Sewing Class'. Its objective was to further the cause of Christian unity and fellowship, and to promote spiritual and temporal welfare of its members. The first officers were: Edith Caldwell, President ; Naomi Andrews, Vice- President; Mrs. Jacob Dawe, Secretary; Mrs.
Christopher, Treasurer. The Sewing Circle evolved into the C.E.W.A. (The Church of England's Women's Association) with branches in Greeleytown, Long Pond and Kelligrews. In the 1960's the CEWA changed its name to the A.C.W. (Anglican Church Women) and on Nov 26th, 1980 the three A.C.W. branches held their first joint meeting.

Today, the ladies of our church continue to meet as an organized branch of the A.C.W. The purpose of this organization is to unite women in a fellowship of worship, study and offering, which will deepen and strengthen their own spiritual lives, and will lead them into Christian service everywhere.

We give God thanks for "their faithfulness, their hard work, and their part in keeping the Church alive for the Lord and for us." (History and Her-story, by Madeline Critchell)

10 Second Sermons

Church is a bit like being a member of a gym. Some people like the idea of going but don't. Others go, but aren't really training for anything. And some actually use it to help them with the race they're running.
