Ali Symons, Anglican Church of Canada

February 1st, 2013—Housing continues to be a joint priority for Anglicans and Lutherans as they support Bill C-400, a private member's bill calling on the government to develop a national housing strategy. Anglican and Lutheran staff leaders engaged in this issue invite local church members to connect with MPs about the bill before it goes before Parliament, February 13th. An estimated 400,000 Canadians do not have healthy homes. Bill C-400 recognizes housing as a human right. It would commit the government to work with non-profits, the private sector, Aboriginal communities and all levels of government in developing a national housing strategy. With set timelines and goals, the strategy would then address the root causes of homelessness and set a plan to provide housing for all. Church members are encouraged to write to or meet with their MPs about Bill C-400 as soon as possible. Resources are available through Dignity for all or you may pick up a drafted letter at the back of the church. All you have to do is put in the top, the name of your MP, the date, sign it at the bottom and get it in the mail ASAP!
