All Saints Candle Shining a light on what's happening in our parish!!

Management

Flower Services

The services are scheduled for 2:00PM on Sunday, July 28, at Dunn's Hill Rd. and Sunday, August 4, at Church Rd. Should it be necessary to postpone either service, it will be held on Monday evening at 7:00PM. If the weather on Monday is unsuitable for an outdoor service, it will be held in the church. To facilitate traffic flow at Dunn's Hill, it is suggested that those attending use the north entrance. Parking attendants will be on hand.

Confirmation

Reminder, if you are beginning the Confirmation Program please register at the Office for Faith Café. If you were in Faith Café last year, you will be starting Pilgrims group this fall. Dates and times to follow.

All Saints will celebrate The Past, Present and Future of our Parish during our Patronal Festival from October 30th—November 3rd

Our festival will include: visitation to our shut-ins on Wed, Oct 30th; an afternoon tea and card-game on Thursday, Nov 1st; a banquet on Friday; a family fun day on Saturday, Nov 2nd for the kiddies as well as something special for our teenagers later in the day; on Sunday, Nov 3rd at 10pm our festival will conclude with Holy Eucharist which will be followed by a time of fellowship. Further details will become available as plans unfold.

A Committee chaired by Mr. Cecil Parsons is putting together a Book of Memories which will be available during our Patronal Festival : remember when ? ??? Remember when the ladies would get on their knees to scrub the floor boards of their church? How would you finish this sentence: I Remember going to church as a child and We'd love to have your memories to share in our booklet.

“As you know by now, I have been diagnosed with colon cancer which means that any plans I had for the coming days/ weeks/ months, have changed.

I am currently off on holidays: this will give me the time I need to prepare for upcoming surgery. To date, I have had a biopsy, a CAT Scan and on Aug 1st I have an appointment for an MRI. I see the surgeon on August 9th. In the meantime, I am at home, waiting.

Waiting has never been my strong suit but it's what I have to do. While I wait I am aware of my vulnerability: not good at that either. Isn't it interesting when you come to a place where you have absolutely no control over what's happening to you.

So here I am, waiting, vulnerable and very aware of God. I give thanks that while I am weak, He is strong and I smile because God is the one who is and always will be in control: so I give it over to Him.

In the stillness, I listen and I wait at the feet of Jesus: I can't think of a better place to be, can you?

I know that it is God who arms me with strength and keeps my way secure. He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; he causes me to stand on the heights. He trains my hands for battle; my arms can bend a bow of bronze. Psalm 18: 32-34

Thank you for your prayers. I will keep you informed.

With love and prayers for all of you.”
