Management

Our Bishop. The Rt Rev Geoffrey Peddle shared his vision for The Church on January 29th in his first sermon as Bishop of Anglican Diocese of Eastern NL.

Please take a moment to read an excerpt from his sermon ( the full document can be found on our parish website)

“... this is what I believe our church needs to say to all persons who come to it:

We will meet you right where you are in life. We celebrate the fact that your journey has brought you to a new encounter with God through us.

We understand that you probably bring some brokenness in your life to our community and we pledge not to add to that brokenness in any way but to accept you with open arms, to walk with you to heal whatever needs to be healed in your life, and to love you just as our Lord has loved us. We believe that there is nothing in your life that cannot be forgiven and healed by God. As you walk with us you will come to believe that too.

We will teach you about God's love through our words, and most especially through our deeds, and we will make room for you within the fellowship of our Christian community. No matter what we may discover about you in the future – either good or bad – our commitment to you will never change.

And because we hold faithfulness to be the highest possible good in human relationships, we promise to be faithful to you, to care for you, and to never ever let you go. In return, we will expect of you the highest possible standard of faithfulness in your relationship with God and with us.

And, finally, our church commits to celebrate with you all that is worthy of celebration in your life, and to care for you and your family should life become difficult in any way. You belong to this church. This church belongs to you. Let us learn to love each other in new ways. Teach us how to love you. We will teach you how to love God.

The church that can finally say that to all persons who come to it is the church that I want to belong to. On this day, less than 48 hours after becoming your bishop, I offer that vision to you. “ — Geoff Peddle

May God open our hearts, and minds to catch his vision.
