FORGET ME NOT

AN ECUMENICAL COMMEMORATION OF THE OUTBREAK OF WORLD WAR I

WHEN? MONDAY, AUGUST 4, 2014
TIME? 8:30 – 9:30 p.m.
WHERE? Basilica of St. John the Baptist

At exactly 9:25 p.m., 1914, Newfoundland Time, a telegram was received by Governor Davidson at Government House in St. John's, advising him that Great Britain had declared war on Germany, and that Newfoundland was thus at war. Governor Davidson subsequently issued a "Call to Arms," and many Newfoundland men answered the call to serve in the Royal Naval Reserve, the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, the Merchant Marine, the Newfoundland Forestry Service, the Royal Flying Corps, the Canadian Army, the Volunteer Aid Detachments, and other units of the allied services. Many Newfoundland women volunteered for service as nurses and ambulance drivers. The women of Newfoundland formed 250 branches of the Women's Patriotic Association-- a response and involvement without parallel in the Empire.

On Monday evening, August 4, 2014, the Basilica of St. John the Baptist and St. Bonaventure's College will host an ecumenical service of remembrance to mark the exact moment when Governor Davidson received the telegram. We extend an invitation to all members of the community to gather for a unique celebration of remembrance and a re-commitment to peace in our time. In prayer, song, poetry and story of the World War I era, we will travel back in time and stand in solidarity with all who gave of themselves so generously, and continue to do so in the conflicts that still plague our human family. All are invited to join for this unique commemoration to mark the 100th anniversary of "The War to End All Wars." In remembering, we commit ourselves to new efforts aimed at ensuring that all will experience a lasting peace.

Worship

10 Second Sermons

God is always present in his creative and energetic plenitude outside the Body of Christ which is the Church, in the world that he has made. Thus, the Church should seek to engage positively with modern society rather than constantly criticize it for hedonism, consumerism, and triviality.
(Robert Thompson)
