Financial Report

Weekly Offerings received for Sunday, March 6th. was $2374.00, our goal is $4526.00, leaving us a short fall of $2152.00.

WHY SUPPORT THE CHURCH?

Your weekly offerings support spiritual development, youth ministries, pastoral care, and worship. It pays for electricity, oil, photocopies, computers, and telephone service. It is the salary for a caretaker, a secretary, and two full time clergy. It maintains our parish hall and our church building. It enables us to provide space for the Guiding Movement, Alcoholics Anonymous, CLB, Sunday School, Old Comrades, ACW, and the many other groups / individuals to gather. It ensures that our church doors are open for weddings, baptisms, confirmations, funerals and regular weekly worship services. A portion of your contribution goes toward hospital and University Chaplaincy, Labrador Ministry, and Queen's College. Your contributions make ministry possible within this community and beyond.

CLB Recycling Day

The CLB will be collecting recyclables and beer bottles on Saturday, March 19th, 10am -12 noon on the upstairs Parish Hall Parking lot. We would appreciate any recyclables you can donate.

ACW would like to sincerely thank everyone who donated items and those who attended the card game in support of Irish Kirby House and Marguerite's Place. Your thoughtfulness was greatly appreciated.
