Congratulations to Old Comrade Calvin Butler who was announced a recipient of the Exemplary Service Award at the annual anniversary parade of the CLB at the Cathedral on Sunday. He will receive this award at Government House from the Lt. Governor in November. The award is given in the form of a medal which is worn on your uniform.

The award recognizes a person's contributions to the Church Lads Brigade over and above the normal. Calvin has been a long time member Lodge #2 and its President for a number of years. He is also treasurer of Foxtrap Company, CLB. He is the third member of the CBS CLB Old Comrades to receive this award which reflects the depth of leadership and commitment within the organization. Comrades Dave Butler & Ed Breen were previous recipients.
