This new guidance has been devised based upon consultation and direction from Public Health, and is subject to change as further restrictions are eased or reinstated.

Some highlights of "The New Has Come" guidelines:

- Pre-registration, while not mandatory, is still recommended, however, maintaining a contact tracing list is mandatory
- Face masks, while not mandatory, are still recommended
- Each bubble must have their own entry/exit point

- Physical contact between people is still not permitted - this would include handshaking, hugging, sharing the peace, and passing the collection plate
- Congregational and group singing permitted (maximum 30 minutes within a 60 minute service), and while not mandatory, masks are recommended
- Faith formation gatherings of children are permitted, and should follow NL Gov "After School Programs" guidelines
- Common use items such as prayer books and hymnals, etc is permitted if set aside 24 hours between uses

- Food or drink provided at Church organized social gatherings must be individually served by designated servers who are wearing masks
- Parish run social gatherings are permitted, while following specific guidelines
