REVISED DIOCESAN GUIDELINES FOR WORSHIP AND GATHERING

“The old has passed away; behold, the new has come” (2 Corinthians 5.17 NIV)

This new guidance has been devised based upon consultation and direction from Public Health, and is subject to change as further restrictions are eased or reinstated.

Some highlights of "The New Has Come" guidelines:

- Each bubble must have their own entry/exit point
- Physical contact between people is still not permitted - this would include handshaking, hugging, sharing the peace, and passing the collection plate
- Congregational and group singing permitted (maximum 30 minutes within a 60 minute service), and while not mandatory, masks are recommended
- Faith formation gatherings of children are permitted, and should follow NL Gov "After School Programs" guidelines
