OUR CANDLE HAS BEEN GIVEN TO THE GLORY OF GOD

In loving memory of a dear friend, Rev Sheila White, remembering her birthday September 5th – by Sandra & Graham Taylor

On Sunday afternoon, August 28th, the CBS CLB Old Comrades Lodge 2 hosted a Commemoration Ceremony at their Wilderness Camp located on Third Pond, just off the Pasturelands Road, which is just south of the TCH. One of our faithful Parishioners, and a very dedicated member of the CBS CLB Old Comrades Association, David Butler, was very instrumental in the development and maintenance of this youth wilderness camp. Originally it was primarily used by the various CLB companies within CBS, however, its use soon spread to numerous youth and community groups around the Eastern Avalon. This Wilderness Camp has been renamed to reflect on and to honour the yeoman efforts of Comrade Dave.

The attendance was absolutely overwhelming, and everybody was given a little walk down memory lane, reflecting on the highlights of the development of this camp. If you are interested in renting these facilities for a day, an overnight, a weekend, or a week, please contact the Old Comrades via email at cb sclboldcomrades@gmail.com
