IN LOVING MEMORY OF CHRISTOPHER RYAN McDONALD JUNE 30, 2024

Christopher had a way of lighting up a room without ever needing to say much. With the bluest eyes that seemed to hold the sky, and larger than life smile always warmed our hearts. He saw the world in his own calm and thoughtful way. Quiet, but always present.

He always had a joke ready - dry, clever, and perfectly timed to make you laugh when you least expected it. He had style in the most effortless way. His baseball caps were more than an accessory; they were a part of who he was. Always cool, he moved through life with laid-back ease that made you feel everything was going to be okay.

If Christopher had a motto, I'm sure it would be, "Don't worry, be happy". He lived that truth with kindness, peacefulness, joyfully, and on his own terms.

We miss him deeply, beyond measure - his quiet strength, his humor and that unbothered easy-going energy that made him so unique. We carry Christopher safely in our hearts always.

*Forever missed, forever loved, and never forgotten.
The McDonald Family*
