Christianity, which puts the emphasis on service, while neglecting awe and adoration of God, Evelyn Underhill says doesn't "wear well"; nor does it lead to sanctity. She encourages us to place the emphasis on God: to be more attentive to him and his ongoing action: to be alert and watch, wait, listen, and gaze at Christ, and adore.

Bishop Sam would like to announce a new online Lay Ministry Program that is available to all parishes. This program is designed to equip lay people for Licensed Lay Ministry through a flexible, self-paced online platform. It includes five core modules focusing on baptism, eucharist, bible, prayer, and Anglicanism, alongside additional modules covering practical skills such as worship planning, pastoral visitation, eucharistic ministry, and other lay ministries. The program is user-friendly, adaptable, and encourages supportive learning through peer, parish, or clergy engagement to ensure participants do not feel isolated in their studies. If you are interested, please speak with your Parish Clergy. Only those candidates recommended to the Bishop by their Clergy are eligible for enrolment in this program.
